Bell Ringing

We are presently having a recruitment drive and are hopeful of attracting several new learners to the tower. It would be an ideal time to also suggest that those people who have previous experience of ringing might like to try their hand at it again. Such people like you would have a lot to offer particularly at this time.

You may have had a good reason for previously giving up your hobby, but perhaps that reason no longer exists. Either way, you would be made extremely welcome if you did decide to join us again.

As I am sure you know, ringing is unique in giving opportunities for physical exercise, mental challenges, team working, musical and architectural appreciation, travel opportunities, and all this at little or no cost to you. There is no spiritual prerequisite, although you could add this to the list of opportunities if you wished to do so. We need ex-ringers to help us at this time to ensure the bells are kept ringing.

I do hope that you will be able to help us and that we shall see you at our practice evening sometime soon. Please give me a call if there is anything that you would like to chat over.

I hope very much you decide to become a bell ringer again!!

Yours truly,
